FEED THE CHILDREN CARAVAN DELIVERS HELP TO 800 ALBUQUERQUE FAMILIES

Albuquerque Indian Center Partners to Bring Food and Essentials to Families in Need

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (Aug. 4, 2010) – Feed The Children will bring two semi tractor-trailers full of food and essentials to Albuquerque families on Wednesday, August 11. The boxes will be distributed to families at 9 a.m. at Albuquerque Indian Center (105 Texas SE).

The distribution is the latest stop on Feed The Children's Americans Feeding Americans Caravan, which has helped more than 125,000 families across the country in cities that have been affected by the nation's economic downturn. Feed The Children plans to help at least 200,000 families with the caravan by the end of 2010.

Feed The Children partner agency, Albuquerque Indian Center, has identified the recipient families and will be on hand to help distribute the boxes. Each family will receive a 25-pound box of food, a 10-pound box of personal care items and a box of Avon products. The boxes are designed to help a family for up to one week.

One in four New Mexico children is considered impoverished. The number of children in New Mexico living in poverty could fill The University of New Mexico Stadium more than three times.

"We are so grateful for Albuquerque Indian Center for partnering with Feed The Children to help serve the community," said Feed The Children Spokesperson Tony Sellars. "Albuquerque is experiencing difficult times during this economic downturn and we hope this distribution will help to give families a hand up."
